THE KINGSBURY CENTER ANNUAL REPORT 2014-2015

KINGSBURY MISSION STATEMENT

The Kingsbury Center provides a transformative educational and social experience for children and adults with learning differences.

Three Lower School students are demonstrating the 2014-2015 theme. Kindness and smiles for all!

LETTER FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL

Dear Kingsbury Community!

“Kindness is Transformational” was our theme for the 2014-2015 school year. We can all readily acknowledge that kindness matters in our daily lives; but how do we put those words into action? Our school community did so by making kindness a deliberate practice. We modeled kindness in the classroom; looked for “teachable” kindness moments; encouraged one another to demonstrate kindness; publicly acknowledged random acts of kindness; and refrained from speaking negatively to or about one another.

Additionally, each member of our community contributed an act of kindness to the Kingsbury KINDNESS sculpture, which was unveiled at our annual Arts Salon and is featured on the front cover. Our KINDNESS sculpture is now a daily reminder of the importance of kindness. It is our hope that Kingsbury’s positive school culture, and certainly our Year of Kindness, will lead our students to develop into young people and adults who value themselves, one another and those with whom we share this earth.

You may notice that our Annual Report is shorter in length this year. Articles about the transformational work underway at Kingsbury Day School and through our Kingsbury Center Services can be found in our new bi-annual magazine, Kaleidoscope. I hope you have had the opportunity to read our first two issues. You may request a copy at the front desk or download the magazine from our website.

Looking Forward,

Peri-Anne Chobot, Ed.D.
CEO and Head of School

KINGSBURY BOARD OF TRUSTEES

As a Kingsbury parent, I am continually impressed by the devoted administrators, teachers, staff and therapists who employ multiple methods and differentiated instruction to meet each student's unique learning needs. These transformative educational experiences are accompanied by efforts to foster social development, provide a platform for personal growth and support healthy relationships.

Despite the many student successes that Kingsbury celebrates on a daily basis, our school faces the same challenges as other independent schools. The Board is always looking for members to assist in raising the funds and resources that are needed to serve our diverse population. If you have an expertise in this area or know someone who might be interested in serving on our Board, I encourage you to reach out to us. Please send an email to Ms. Jo Boukhira, Kingsbury's Director of Institutional Advancement, at jboukhira@kingsbury.org.

Yours truly,

James A. Brooks
